Award	Name	Sports	Achievements
Lifetime Achievement Award	Lee Wu-Nan	Boxing	Mr. Lee Wu-Nan has devoted over six decades to the sport of boxing. From 1998 to 2006, he served as the Vice President of the Asian Boxing Confederation (ASBC), and from 2006 to 2010, he was an Executive Committee Member of the ASBC. During this time, he not only raised the profile of boxing in Taiwan but also worked tirelessly to expand Taiwan's diplomatic space by advocating for the hosting of international competitions. As the President of the Chinese Taipei Boxing Association, Mr. Lee spearheaded numerous reforms, including promoting boxing in schools, implementing changes to the referee and coaching systems, and building friendly relationships with international boxing federations. He also made great efforts to secure opportunities to host international events. In the past 20 years, Mr. Lee has also nurtured female boxers. Domestic competitions have women's groups, and female boxers have gradually emerged. In recent years, many outstanding female boxers have been cultivated, such as Lin Yu-Ting, Chen Nien-Chin, Wu Shih-Yi and Huang Hsiao-Wen; he is a "pioneer in promoting women's boxing." Mr. Lee's selfless contributions to Taiwan's boxing are truly remarkable, and his unwavering dedication to the sport cannot be overstated. Under his leadership, Taiwan achieved its best-ever boxing results at the Hangzhou 2022 Asian Games, bagging 1 gold, 2 silver, and 2 bronze medals. In addition, at the 2024 Paris Olympic Games, Taiwan's boxing team won 1 gold and 2 bronze medals, marking the country's best-ever performance in boxing at the Olympics. These accomplishments testify to the long-term excellence and dedication of Mr. Lee and the boxing association and professional team he led, which have finally borne fruit. The Lifetime Achievement Award is indeed well-deserved.
Special Award	Sun Chen	Breaking	In the 2024 Paris Olympic qualifying competitions, Sun Chen first won seventh place in Shanghai. Although he was knocked out in the last 16 in Budapest, he still ranked tenth for overall points and qualified for the Paris 2024 Olympics. This was also the first time break dancing was featured as an Olympic event. At the 2024 Paris Olympics, Sun Chen and female badminton player Tai Tzu-ying

			served as Taiwan's flag bearers in the opening ceremony. In the "Undisputed" Bboy solo battle event of the 2024 "IBE International Hip-Hop Dance Festival" competition, Sun Chen lost to Venezuelan player Alvin in the final and finished runner-up. On August 25, 2024, he won the Bboy solo battle championship at Outbreak Europe ahead of more than 500 contestants from around the world. It was also the first world championship title in his career. Sun said, "Hip-hop culture is my spirit and breaking is my everything!" He incorporates Taiwanese elements into breaking, such as creating a Taiwanese redneck dance, including bubble milk tea drinking scenes, and wearing the iconic blue and white sandals synonymous with Taiwan, all of which are woven into his dance. This creative fusion is meant to recreate the collective memory of Taiwan and let the world see Taiwan. Specific achievements: (1) Taiwan's first Olympic break dancer ranking in the top 16 in the world (2) 2024 Outbreak Europe World Champion (3) Runner-up in the 2024 IBE International Hip-Hop Dance Festival
